Gordon Kuhne practices the Yoga of Sound. Yoga comes from the ancient language called Sanskrit, and it means union, binding together the body, mind, and spirit. Through the use of ancient Singing Bowls, Ghantas, Tingshas, and a large Earth Gong, combined with the use of bija mantras and visualization techniques, Gordon can help a person connect their body and mind, to their spirit, in what he calls their 'essence'. "When one connects to their true self, their essence, miraculous, and spontaneous healing can occur." Gordon is the founder of Sacred Singing Bowls, www.sacredsingingbowls.com. You can contact him by phone 817-905-1930 or through his website.
